R. F. CARMAN'S GOOD HORSE IN FINE PER-FORMANCE AT LOUISVILLE.

Comes Back to the Races After Long Absence and Scores at First Asking-Strong Reduces Track Record.

Louisville, Ky., May 27.—The extra good card provided, by Acting Secretary Jack Campbell at Douglas Park this afternoon resulted in a return of the former big patronage, the attendance being extremely large considering the sweltering weather prevailing here. Fast and spirited racing was the order throughout. The track record of 1:51½ for a mile and an eighth, held jointly by Meiton Street and Flying Feet, was displaced by a new one when T. C. McDowell's Strong set the mark at 1:51, which is only one second slower than the American record held by Vox Populi and made at Santa Anita Park, Dec. 19, 1998. Strong won in the easiest kind of fashion and had he been pressed the American record dangerously close. He was aided considerably by the fast early pace that Flying Feet and Bell Horse forced. Both of these, as a result of the killing pace they sustained for three-quarters, weakened at the end, though Flying Feet field on surprisingly well to land second place.

A $700 handleap at six furlongs featured the day's racing and resulted in a popular victory for R. F. Carman's Meridian, which was making his first appearance in these parts in a long time, Meridian stripped in excellent shape, better than he has since his victory in the Kentucky Derby and he raced in his old-time style. Vandergrift, under a punishing drive, got up to take second place from The Widow Moon, with Wilhite only a short distance off. The Carman establishment had previously won a purse with Lady Barbary, which came with a sensational rush in the last furlong of the third race to beat Margaret D, and Fligree. Gipsy Love, which is in rare form at present, added another bracket to her already long list when she just managed to outstay Morristown and The Norman.

just managed to outstay Morristown and The Norman.

Jockey Neylon began the day auspiciously when the plotted Gano and Mary Ann K. to victory in succession. His ride on Mary Ann K. was a masterly one, for he took chances of getting through small openings that probably no other rider at the track would have attempted.

News that the American-owned Durbar H. had won the classic Epsom Derby was received with joy among the horsemen here. Mr. Duryen is immensely popular with American turfmen and Durbar's victory in the great race held additional local interest from the fact hat he was piloted by Matt McGee, whose home is in Covington, Ky, McGee's father was at the course this afternoon and was the recipient of many congratulations on his son's success.

John F. Schorr, who is training the string owned by his father, had Luke McLuke, winner of the Kentucky Handicap, on the track this morning. The colt still showed some symptoms of soreness, although not pronounced, and he will soon be in racing fettle again.

John Hogan intends to take about a dozen horses to race at Butte and Anaconda this summer.

Dr. Bryant today gelded Foundation, Prince Engene, Thought Reader, Snider's Best, Sosius and Kris Kringle in the Jefferson Livingston stable. Ed Howard, in the same establishment, had the firing irons applied to his forelegs and Marie O'Brien was fired about the knees. Mr. Livingston is in quest of good racing material to strengthen his establishment during the period that the above racers will be out of training, and, if successful, will ship the stable to Saratoga. He will make a special effort to secure racers in the cast for fall racing in Kentucky.

C. A. Tilles, one of the main owners in the Douglas Park and Latonia tracks, departed today by automobile for Indianapolis, where he will attend the motor races before returning to St. Louis. He expressed great satisfaction with racing conditions here and complimented John Haehmeister on his effective and efficient management.

H. B. DURYEA WINS EPSOM DERBY WITH HIS GOOD COLT DURBAR

London, Eng., May 27.—The running of the Derby at Epsom today was witnessed by an enormous assemblage. King George and Queen Mary were among those who distinguished the occasion and the king's colt, Brakespear was among the horses starting. It had been reported that the militant suffragettes had resolved to shoot Brakespear while the race was in progress, but such extraordinary measures to keep spectators from encroaching on the track had been adopted, that nothing out of the ordinary occurred. The race was contested by the anexpected number of thirty-one starters. Kennymore was the post favorite at 9 to 4, with Brakespear and Black Jester second choices at 11 to 1 cach, but neither of them had anything to do with the finish. The race was won by H. B. Duryea's barbar, by Rabelais—Armenia, ridden by the American Jockey McGee, the colt winning by three leagths, with H. Cholmondely's colt Hapsburg, by Desmond—Altesse, second, and H. J. King's colt Peter the Hermit, by St. Petersburg—Carlin, third. All were outsiders in the betting, Durbar being at 30 to 1, Hapsburg 33 to 1 and Peter the Hermit 100 to 1. Kennymore was extremely fractious at the post and, besides delaying the start, contributed to his own defeat by his frantic rearing and plunging.

Durbar, while American-owned, is a French-bred orse. His sire, Rabelais, is a son of the ever famous St. Simon and was himself a capital race horse. Armenia, the dam of Durbar, is one of the American mares taken to France by Mr. Duryea and is a daughter of Meddler and the Hanover mare Urania, so, on his dam's side, Durbar is of American descent. Durbar attracted but little attention as a two-year-old last season. He started in seven races and was only placed in one, running second to Maitre et Seigneur in the Prix Partisan at Le Tremblay, near Paris, July 16, 1913. However, in the transition from his two-year-old to his three-year-old form he improved vastly and, by signal successes this year, had already won for himself the reputation of being about the best three-year-old in France. To this reputation he has now added the greater distinction of being the first French-bred colt to win the Epsom Derby since Gladiateur carried it off in 1805. Unluckly for Mr. Duryea, he is not engaged in the Doncaster St. Leger, olse to him might have fallen the honor of being the first American owner to win the Two Thousand Guineas, Derby and St. Leger. It will be remembered that Broomstick's son, Sweeper II., won the Two Thousand of 1912 for him. P. Lorillard won the Derby and St. Leger of 1881 with Iroquois and August Belmont won the Two Thousand of 1908 with Norman III. and the St. Leger of last year with Tracery, but no American owner has as yet captured all three of the great events. For one thing it is more than probable that today Mr. Duryea is about the most popular man in France.

Raoul—Half mile in 50. Star Jasmine—Three-quarters in 1:17. Star O'Ryan—Five-eighths in 1:03.

THE MASQUERADER FINALLY BEATEN.

Ral Parr's Good Colt Runs Third in Juvenile Stakes Won by J. L. Holland's Hauberk.

New York, May 27.—The Juvenile Stakes, for two-year-olds, was the feature of today's racing at Belmont Park, J. L. Holland's Haubert was returned the winner over a high-class field of starters, which included the hitherto unbeaten Ogden colt, The Masquerader. A heavy downpour of rain rendered the course sloppy for the last four races and, Hauberk, showing a decided fondness for the going, easily wore down the early oacemaker, siarion H., in the final eighth and won going away. The Masquerader ruled an odds-on choice and lingered at the start, but closed a big gap in the first furlong.

Callahan on the Brookside Stable horses; McCahey is under contract to James Fitzsimmons and J. Glass will have the mount on the F. Johnson starters. Glass can ride at 106 pounds this season.

GOSSIP AND COMMENT FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., May 27.—By winning at Douglas Park, Tuesday, a mile and a sixteenth in 1:44%, John Gund again came into the limelight as a Latonia Derby candidate of more than average class. Behind him were two other Latonia Derby candidates in Doctor Samuel and Brickley. John Gund has a good turn of speed and in all his races this spring has shown an ability to stay.
He finished fourth to Old Rosebud, Hodge and Bronzewing in the recent record-breaking Kentucky Derby race and he was second to Bronzewing in the Blue Grass Stakes at Lexington. He is a beautifully-bred horse and from a family on his dam's side that may be expected at any time to produce a great horse. His weight in the coming Derby race will be 122 pounds.
Trainer Clif Hammon is sending right along E.
R. Bradley's royally-bred, $14,000-colt. Beach
Comber, in an effort to get him ready for the mile and a half Latonia Derby. He will get in that race with a maiden allowance of seven pounds, provided he does not previously win a race at Douglas Park. His impost will be 115 pounds, Another supposedly good in the race with the same weight is E. C. Arnold's bay colt, Tener, in James Everman's string.

G. W. J. Bissell's good three-year-old filly, Dainty Mint, has gone wrong in training and her owner has shipped her to Lexington to enter the stud. She will be mated in a few days with Rapid Water, which noted sire is now in the stud of at J. E. Madden's Hamburg Place.

Peter Clark, who compiles the form charts at Denver, Butte, Anaconda, Vancouver, Juarez and other western tracks, has gone west to arrange the details of his summer's work. He has had quite an enjoyable time taking in the high-class racing on the local tracks this season and regretted exceedingly his inability to stay over for the running of the Latonia Derby on June 13.

J. B. Respess started in the third race at Douglas Park, on Thesday, a colt named Timepiece that may develop into a high-class racer. In his race, Thresday, he was a distant trailer throughout after breaking slowly, but he is a smoothly-turned youngster with an extra good way of going and just the sort that constantly improves with racing. He is a half-brother to Dick Roller, considered by many the best two-year-old Dick Welles ever sired, but which unfortunately died at an early age. Timepiece is eligible to the Spring Trial Stakes at Douglas Park on the closing day of the meeting, Saturday, June 6, and will get in that race with a ten-pound allowance unless he wins in the meantime. He is also entered for the Harold and Valuation Stakes at Latonia, as well as the rich Cincinnati Trophy.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES AT WOODBINE.

IMPRESSIVE SCENES AT WOODBINE.

Notwithstanding the many counter-attractions, the crowd at the Woodbine races, Monday, numbered considerably over 12,000. This is somewhat less than the altendance on opening day, but represented a more pleasure-seeking class. The members' lawn presented the same variety of fashion and figure; there were new gowns and new faces, and the social circle was enlivened by the presence of a few members of Parliament, to whom the holiday brought a respite from the routine at Ottawa.

Although the daily group in the members' enclosure is feminiscent of the earlier days in Ontario Juckey Club history, one camot help but notice the scores of new faces that appear from year to year. Comparing a list of those present, say, ten or lifteen years ago, with the names of those on hand Saturday and Monday would disclose a majority of entirely new names and new families. How much this is due to the growth of the city and the widening popularity of the Woodbine on the one hand and to the passing of an old generation on the other one would not care to say. But the fact is obvious and pressing on the attention of the passerby. Monday's gathering had more of the "merry-making" spirit than that of Saturday. It was the first holiday of the summer season, and all who were bred to the sport of racing seemed to have taken advantage of the occasion. The barrier between the members' enclosure and the public stand did not suggest any diminution in enjoyment; in fact, those in the grand stand apparently got closer to the genius of the sport than those in the more exclusive part of the grounds, because they were not obessed with style, custom and formality. Around the mutuel house every man was the other fellow's friend. This, indeed, was the cosmopolitan crowd. It ran all the way from business man, clerk, bookkeeper and artisan to the stable boy and track follower, each of whom had his dollar to wager on a favorite horse.

BACKED EPSOM DERBY WINNER.

Lexington, Ky., May 27.—The happiest man in Kentucky over the victory of Herman B. Duryea's Durbar in the Epsom Derby today was Lucas B. Combs, son of Leslie Combs, former United States minister to Peru, Young Combs' brother, Brownell, is spending the summer abroad with Mr. Duryea and last week took Durbar from France to England at the request of his host. Brownell wrote Luke that Durbar would surely win if he had good racing luck. Luke promptly made arrangements for a wager on this side of the Atlantic for a modest amount, which netted him 5 to 1.

Two of the other races were for horses foaled in Canada, the Coronation Stakes, $2,500 added, for two-year-olds, and the Whitby Plate for three-years olds and upward. Linsin, trained by A. G. Weston, and sired by Thomas Clyde's old racer, Dublin, won the Coronation Stakes, and, as in the Goodwood Plate, run on Monday last, he again beat among others, Harry Bassett II., the brother to the King's Plate winner, Beelive. Linsin displayed rare gameness in today's contest and hung on with buildog courage after carrying Harry Bassett II along at a fast clip to the stretch turn. The finish was a rousing one between Linsin and Lady Curzon, a filly by Plaudit—The Belle of Mayfair, that was making her maiden effort.

A trip of more than 20,000 miles will be taken by an Oakland, Cal., policeman to bring to the bar of justice "Sir" Harry Westwood Cooper, who is wanted to answer several charges, including bigamy. The city council voted to send the police-man to South Africa for Cooper on information that the state would bear the expense.

Inquiries regarding the death of Benton, a British subject, and Bauch, an American, in Mexico, have been revived by the state department. It was understood that General Carranza, with whom the matter was taken up some months ago, has appealed for a delay of the issue on the ground that the matter is of too delicate a nature to take up at this time.

The London Daily Express printed a story to the effect that the police were notified of a plot to shoot Brakespear, King George's entry in the Derby yesterday at Epsom Downs. The Express added that at a meeting of militant suffragists the night before success to the plot was drunk. There were 2000 police at the race course to protect the king from possible annoyance by the militants.

Municipal ownership of the United Railroads, which operates most of the traction lines in San Francisco, is a possible outcome of censure pronunced by the railroad commission on the traction corporation following former President Patrick Calloqui's investment of $1,096,000 in an irrigated farms project. An approximate physical valuation of $35,000,000 has been placed on the United Railroads' property.

Ed Cole, having been called to New York in connection with the racing at Belmont Park, C. C. Campau has succeeded him as presiding judge at Delorimier Park.

Two dollars invested in a pool on the Epsom Derby won $20,000 for William C. Townsend, a twenty-three-year-old cable operator, at North Syndney, C. B., according to advices from there yesterday. Townsend drew Durbar II.

The officials of the Electric Park meeting are: Presiding judge, P. A. Brady; stewards, Carter C. Hall, W. H. Whitehurst and J. H. Anderson; associate judge and clerk of course, Harry Price; racing secretary, Hart Dernham; starter, George T. Miller; general manager, Arthur N. Elrod.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

E. B., Chicago. The sum due was $2.60.

E. B., Chicago. The sum due was $2.60.
F. E. A., Chicago. You should receive $2.85.
J. J. C., Chicago. The distance of the race at Washington Park in which Dick Welles was left at the post, but came on and won from Runnels, was three-quarters of a mile.
C. H. W., Chicago. Had the animal at Toronto won there would necessarily have been a settlement on some other than the stipulated basis, but under the circumstances it was a losing affair.

Won driving; second and third the same. J. H. HOUGHTON outran the others to the first turn and was rated along in the lead under slight restraint until straightened out in the homestretch, then had to be hard ridden through the last sixteenth to outstay BLACK-EYED SUSAN. The latter was permitted to drop out of forward contention in the early running and came wide on the stretch turn, but finished with a rush.

BANJO JIM ran well, but tired in the final strides.

Scratched—14321 Spring Maid, 99.
